Author & Guest Speaker

Your Next Great Guest

Barbara Kudwa worked as a Financial Advisor with an emphasis on presenting seminars. Over time, she found God calling her to witness to His unconditional love, grace and mercy. Using her spiritual journey, filled with devastating challenges and multiple healings, she now seeks to inspire others to allow God to impact their lives.

Acting as a catalyst for hope in the midst of darkness, Barbara reveals in Finding God Anew how she experiences the twin blessings of hope and forgiveness. She discovers God's Will, God winks, extending forgiveness, healing, and inner peace.

"We often hear that God will never give us more than we can handle, but what happens when the challenge we face feels insurmountable? You are not alone. In Finding God Anew, Barb shares her journey of feeling overwhelmed by challenges she thought would break her. Instead of falling, Barb found God right next to her through suicide, divorce, tragedy, trauma, and loss. She shares her courageous battles and how she survived to become the beautiful woman she is today. Finding God Anew is a roadmap on how to survive the greatest of sufferings and learn to live again."
